WINNING STREAK HALTED AS CANUCKS REBOUND AT HOME

Henrik Sedin scored two goals 30 seconds apart midway through the third period, giving the Vancouver Canucks a 4-2 victory over the Kings, before 18,630 at GM Place, Friday, March 13. Sedin's two goals came right after the Kings scored twice 26 seconds apart to tie the game. It was a 2-0 Vancouver lead before Alexander Frolov scored at 6:50 of the third, followed up by an Anze Kopitar goal at 7:16. Sedin then answered at the 8:44 and 9:14 marks. The Canucks built a 2-0 first-period lead on goals by Alex Burrows and Mats Sundin.

KINGS TAKE THIRD STRAIGHT WITH 3-2 WIN VS. CANUCKS

Jarret Stoll had two power-play goals, both assisted by Teddy Purcell, as the Kings eked out a 3-2 win against the Vancouver Canucks, before 16,995 at STAPLES Center, Monday, March 9. Denis Gauthier gave the Kings a 1-0 lead 3:35 into the game before Stoll got his first of the night at 12:17. Alex Burrows cut the lead in half 4:40 into the second, but Stoll answered with his second of the night at the 12:51 mark. That proved to be the game-winner, as Vancouver's Taylor Pyatt knocked one in 5:26 into the third.

HOW SWEEP IT IS; KINGS BEAT WILD 4-3

The Kings earned their first-ever season sweep (4-0-0) over the Minnesota Wild with a 4-3 triumph, before a sellout crowd of 18,118 at STAPLES Center, Saturday, March 7. Teams traded a pair of goals in the first period (Kyle Quincey and Kyle Calder scored for LA) before Anze Kopitar's and Teddy Purcell's second-period tallies gave the Kings a 4-2 lead. Former King Eric Belanger drew the Wild back to within one early in the third period, but that's as close as they could get.

LATE RALLY GIVES KINGS OT WIN VS. DALLAS

Michal Handzus recorded his second career hat trick and scored his second overtime game-winner of the season, leading the Kings to a come-from-behind 5-4 win, before 17,430 at STAPLES Center, Thursday, March 5. Dallas had a 3-0 lead before Handzus netted his first of the night 15:41 into the second. Alexander Frolov scored 33 seconds later to make it a 3-2 game, but the Stars got one more in the waning moments of the middle frame. Handzus then got his second of the night at 16:42 of the third and Anze Kopitar tied it with 14 seconds left in regulation. Handzus notched the game-winner 1:31 into overtime.

SEE-SAW GAME GOES THE WAY OF JACKETS

The Kings scored three goals in a 1:55 span in the second period, but the Columbus Blue Jackets won a see-saw battle 5-4, before 15,049 at Nationwide Arena, Tuesday, March 3. Columbus had a 3-1 lead midway through the second before Teddy Purcell, Anze Kopitar and Oscar Moller quickly gave the Kings a 4-3 advantage. Jiri Novotny tied it late in the middle frame and Manny Malhotra scored his second of the game (and the game-winner) midway through the third.

QUOTES ON O'DONNELL PLAYING IN 1,000TH GAME: LAKings.com spoke with current teammates and coaches, broadcasters, as well as former teammates and coaches about the type of player and person that O'Donnell is...

Wow OD, a thousand games, congratulations bud. Great accomplishment. You have accomplished a lot over your career and this is just another statement to it. I want to take this time to wish you and Laura all the best from our family, continued success. Again congratulations on 1,000 games and remember, I will buy you dinner this summer." - Rob Blake

At my age now, I am only 19 and I hope I can play half as many games as he has. He is such a great person, on and off the ice, and he works as hard as he can every day and never takes a day off. He is such a good player and a great leader and I don't think our team would be where we are without him." - Drew Doughty

It's a huge milestone for any player. Because of the type of player OD has been throughout his career - not being that offensive force, that all-star - I think it says even more about him as a person. In the situation he is in now, at the 'so-called end of his career,' coaches want quality people around for that role of mentor and anyone who comes in contact with him can see exactly the type of person he is. But this year, he has been more than just a good mentor, he has done a great job on the ice, which may have surprised some people. We all expected the leadership role, but his time on ice, and his play in his own end, he has been really great for the Kings this year." - Jim Fox

When you think about it, you have to play almost every single game for at least 13 years or so to reach that mark, so it quite the feat. There are not many guys that are able to achieve that mark and have that durability and effectiveness. It speaks volumes about OD, about his character and the way he takes care of himself. It is going to be a special moment for him and something he should be really proud of." - Denis Gauthier

It's a huge accomplishment and something that is really respected around the league. It is a testament to OD's character, guys get banged up night in and night out and to be able to play that many games and play well, is a really big honor. He is a real calming influence on this young team." - Matt Greene

Sean is one of the ultimate team players in the game. It was a pleasure to play with him. He is one of those guys who defends his teammates at any cost, and he was nothing but a professional when I coached him. I'm not surprised he's played 1,000 games because he's just worked hard and made himself a National Hockey League player." - Wayne Gretzky

He has been playing for a long time. It is a great accomplishment to play in the league that long. He is a good guy to have around to ask questions, there are very few situations in this league that he has not already been in. He is a great guy to have around and has been a real leader on this team." - Jack Johnson

Sean to me was a steady defenseman, a guy who came to play every night and a good example to the kids. He's a great team player, any time there was an altercation or something like that, he was involved. He is a guy that you have a lot of confidence in, playing the game defensively, killing penalties; he was a guy you can count on at any time. For his 1,000 games, it is a great achievement and I wish him good luck for 1000 more. Congratulations. Hopefully you can have another 1,000 if you can survive it. Playing 1,000 games is a great achievement and you are doing it because it is very simple, you know the game, how it is played. You have been a very steady defenseman and an example for the kids because you want to play the game and you have a passion for the game. Congratulations and I hope the best for you in the future."
- Jacques Lemaire

Sean is exactly what you are looking for in a veteran player, I thought he has played very well for us. As an older veteran, he logged a lot of ice time and gave us a lot of quality minutes. But the biggest thing with OD is the character. You couldn't have a better guy in terms of what you want your younger players to aspire to. He is still there protecting them when needs be. I can't say enough about him in terms of the character and what he brings to the room." - Dean Lombardi

Any time I see somebody away from the rink, in the off-season or whatever, somebody that was part of that [2007 Stanley Cup Championship] team, they're always going to hold a little special place in my heart, in my mind. OD is one of those guys. He came in and battled hard for us. He was a great Anaheim Duck. He's a great NHL player, and we wish him the best of luck. He's a stand-up guy. He works hard every day. He's going to be able to teach those young kids the way the game is supposed to be played. I can't say enough good things about him. I never liked playing against him, and I'm certainly not going to like playing against him now." - Todd Marchant

When he first came in, he was not a rookie, he was much more seasoned and was not prone to rookie-type mistakes. He had the personality of a veteran right away. He had tremendous respect for the game and enjoyed being at the rink and always respected the guys who played before him. To watch Sean progress as a player and a person has been really fun. When the Kings brought him back in, I thought it was a very strong move by the organization. He is a great presence, a good professional and someone the young guys can emulate and learn from. " - Marty McSorley

Congratulations to Sean O'Donnell on the outstanding accomplishment of his 1,000th game in the National Hockey League. I saw him join the Kings as a rookie and take advice from the Kings veterans and now 1,000 games later I see him become the mentor and impart his vast experience and knowledge to current Kings rookie Drew Doughty. He has had many successful years in the NHL and won a Stanley Cup. The Los Angeles Kings are fortunate to have him back in a Kings uniform." - Bob Miller

When a player has played 1,000 games and reaches that milestone in his pro career, there are a whole lot of things that I think about. When you talk about that particular player, he must be a good player, be a contributor to the teams he has played on and be a high character guy and must have been fortunate in the sense that he has been injury free for much of his career. You are going to play hurt, and there are nights when it is not comfortable when you put the equipment on, but you have to dig deep mentally and emotionally to play. All those guys that have reached that milestone have gone through that. OD is that type of player. " - Terry Murray

It's a great accomplishment for any player in the National Hockey League to play in 1,000 games. It is a grind every night, especially for a defenseman. I remember when he started his career with the Kings, he was in the Buffalo organization when Sam McMaster traded for him. When Sean came here to Los Angeles, he was a mature player, a physical player and he kept the game very simple. He was very steady and very consistent as a rookie in the league. Now some years later, his game really hasn't changed. What he can really hang his hat on is his consistency and durability, and he is a great guy and a great veteran influence, especially on this year's Kings team, which is the youngest in the NHL." - Nick Nickson

It is a huge accomplishment for OD. As a guy starting out my career, to get where he is now, that is a dream come true. That is what legends are made of right there. He is one of the backbones of this team. We would not be in the same spot that we are in now with out him. " - Kyle Quincey

I wanted to congratulate Sean, I remember coming back here in 1997 and seeing him in the room. He was just in his third season and he was already a force and a good defensive player but he was just learning to be a leader and then he went on and played for some great teams. He was always a safe defenseman but he became this force as a defenseman. I remember him telling me how he learned from Jacques Lemaire and playing in New Jersey. He has used that to end up winning a Stanley Cup and now he has taken all of this experience and is teaching our young guys what it takes to win every day. He has been a huge difference in our lineup this year and we are happy that we have him another year. I want to congratulate him on 1,000 games. That is a lot of games for a guy who plays as physical as he does, a guy who protects his teammates. It has been an amazing accomplishment." - Luc Robitaille

What a great accomplishment for Sean. I was just moving into the management side when he came to the Kings. [Former Kings GM] Sam McMaster made the trade with Buffalo [to acquire his rights], and the connection there is that Sam McMaster had O'Donnell on his team in Sudbury in the OHL and knew him. Over the years we got to know Sean as a reliable defensive defenseman He brings a lot of leadership and character to the room, he is the type of player that will stand up for his teammates. In those early days, he worked on his foot speed and his mobility as he always had the size and strength to play at the NHL level. With the experience he has accumulated, he remains a very valuable player and a great leader for the younger players in the Kings lineup." - Dave Taylor

Los Angeles Kings In The Community

DARYL EVANS DONATES TO RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE: Kings radio color commentator Daryl Evans will be donating $100 for every Kings power-play goal scored this season to the Ronald McDonald House of Southern California. This is the third consecutive season he has been active in this program. In 2006-07 he donated $8,100 and in 2007-08 he donated $6,400.

KINGS COMMUNITY CORNER: Kings players Anze Kopitar, Patrick O'Sullivan and Sean O'Donnell will be purchasing game tickets throughout the remainder of 2008-09 season and donating them to the newly formed Kings Community Corner, presented by Valero. The Kings Community Corner will then distribute the tickets to selected local non-profit groups. For more information log onto www.LAKings.com.

BROWN PARTNERS WITH KABOOM!: Dustin Brown has personally partnered with KaBOOM! and will be donating $50 for each of his hits over the season to the non-profit organization that envisions a great place to play within walking distance of every child in America. Last season Brown led the NHL with 311 hits. For more information log onto www.lakings.com/kaboom.

SALUTE TO HEROES: Throughout the 2008-09 season, the Kings would like to salute heroes within our community. With special ticket packages for each Salute to Heroes game, Kings fans can help honor those recognized as giving back to their communities in their own ways. The Kings will next salute nominated local heroes by fans on April 4. Fans can nominate local heroes in their own community by logging onto LAKings.com/heroes.

5K RUN/WALK: The 7th Annual Los Angeles Kings 5k Run/Walk presented by Sport Chalet will take place on Saturday, April 4, in Downtown Los Angeles on the streets surrounding STAPLES Center. A portion of the event's proceeds will go to the Kings Care Foundation. The cost is $30 and includes a commemorative T-shirt and a ticket to that day's 1 p.m. Kings-Phoenix game at STAPLES Center. Former Kings forward/current radio broadcaster Daryl Evans will once again host this year's race and participate in the event. Prizes will be given to the top competitors at each male and female age level. All participants will be entered into a raffle for Kings 2009-2010 season tickets. Any racers who beat Evans will be given a second raffle ticket. New to the event this season will be Bailey's Family Fun Run, which begins at 10 a.m. and will be a shorter version of the course. Anyone registered for the main 5K can participate in the Family Fun Run. Also new this year is a Youth Sports Challenge. Any youth sports team can register a minimum of 10 runners to participate and the first team to have five runners cross the finish line will receive a $500 gift card to Sport Chalet and a private post-game meet-and-greet with two Kings players. San Jose Sharks Head Coach

Todd McLellan

Notes: 2008-09 CURRENT SEASON NOTES:

- He made his All-Star Game debut as the Western Conference head coach becoming only the second first-year NHL coach in League history to coach an All-Star team (Doug MacLean - 1996).
- Led the Sharks to the second best winning percentage (.811) before the All-Star break in the history of the NHL (.814, 79-80 Philadelphia Flyers)
- Had the second-best start to a career at home in NHL history with 9 consecutive victories, just one behind Alex Curry (10, Ottawa - 1925-26)
- Started the season with 22 consecutive home games (20-0-2) without a regulation loss

Notes:

CAREER RECORD VS. NASHVILLE: 4-2-1

VS. NASHVILLE IN 2008-09: 0-2-0

Terry Murray was named Head Coach of the Kings on July 17, 2008. He joins the Kings with a wide range of NHL experience as a head coach, assistant coach, scout and player.

Formerly the Head Coach of the Washington Capitals, Florida Panthers and the Philadelphia Flyers, where he led that club to the 1997 Stanley Cup Finals, Murray is the 22nd head coach in Kings history. He entered this season with a 360-277-100 record over 11 NHL seasons as a head coach. Murray spent the past four full seasons as an Assistant Coach with the Flyers.

As the Head Coach of the Flyers for three seasons (1994-95 through 1996-97), Murray compiled a 118-64-30 record. In addition to the 1997 Stanley Cup Finals/Eastern Conference Championship, Murray coached the team to two Atlantic Division Championships (1995 and 1996).

He began his NHL head coaching career with Washington for five seasons (1989-90 through 1993-94) and compiled a 163-134-28 record with the Capitals. In his first season he helped lead the Capitals to the Eastern Conference Finals. Murray also coached Florida for three seasons (1998-99 through 2000-01) and compiled a 79-90-31 record, which included a franchise-record 98-point season and a team-record 43 wins in 1999-00. In all, Murray has guided his club to the playoffs in nine of his last 10 seasons, and he has a 46-43 playoff record as a Head Coach.

Murray has also coached as an Assistant Coach with the Capitals (1983-84 through 1987-88); as Head Coach with the Baltimore Skipjacks of the American Hockey League (from 1988-89 through 1989-90); and as Head Coach with the Cincinnati Cyclones of the International Hockey League (1993-94).

As an NHL defenseman, Murray, 58 (July 20, 1950), played in 302 career NHL regular season games over eight seasons with Washington, Philadelphia (two stints), the Detroit Red Wings and the California Golden Seals/California Seals, who originally drafted Murray in the seventh-round (88th overall) of the 1970 NHL Amateur Draft.

A native of Shawville, Quebec, Terry and his wife Linda have two daughters, Meaghan and Lindsey.
